Featured Keynote Speakers

Linda Burnes Bolton, DrPH, RN

Chief Nursing Officer, Health System Chief Nursing Executive, Senior Vice President of Nursing & Director of Nursing Research

Dr. Linda Burnes Bolton is a renowned leader who oversees the delivery of high-quality nursing care for patients and the development and support of the professional practice of nursing at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center.

Additionally, Dr Burnes oversees the ambulatory care clinics, the Medical Network and the Marina Del Rey Hospital, a community hospital affiliate of Cedars-Sinai. She is also a co-investigator of the Regional Collaborative Alliance for Nursing Outcomes research team.

Peter Buerhaus, Ph.D., RN, FAAN

Professor of Nursing at Montana State University

Dr. Peter Buerhaus is an internationally renowned nurse economist. He is a professor in the College of Nursing and Director of the Center for Interdisciplinary Health Workforce Studies at Montana State University.

Buerhaus' research includes forecasting nurse and physician supply, developing, and testing measures of the quality of care in hospitals, determining public and provider opinions on issues involving the delivery of health care, and assessing the quantity and quality of health care provided by nurse practitioners.
